

VICTORIA
COUNTY
HISTORY

Celebrating 75 years of the Victoria County History at the Institute of Historical Research

Seminar Series 2008

Institute of Historical Research

This special series of seminars has been convened to mark 75 years of the Victoria County History at the Institute of Historical Research.

All seminars start at 5.15pm and will be held in the Wolfson Room, IHR

Tuesday 22 January 2008

Professor John Beckett

The VCH and the discipline of local history since 1933

Professor John Beckett is Director of the Victoria County History, and Professor of English Regional History at the University of Nottingham.

Wine and nibbles will be served after this seminar.

Tuesday 5 February 2008

Dr Carenza Lewis

Historic village investigation at the dawn of the 21st century - new opportunities, new directions, new knowledge

Dr Carenza Lewis is an affiliated lecturer teaching medieval archaeology in the Department of Archaeology at the University of Cambridge. She is also a regular presenter on Channel 4's Time Team.

Tuesday 19 February 2008

Professor Chris Dyer

Medieval villages: new approaches

Chris Dyer is Professor of Regional and Local History at the Centre for English Local History, University of Leicester.

Tuesday 4 March 2008

Professor Tom Williamson

Regional landscapes and regional societies: the environmental dimension

Professor Tom Williamson leads the Landscape Group at the School of History, University of East Anglia.

The Wolfson Room is located on the 3rd Floor of Senate House in the Institute of Historical Research. Senate House can be accessed via Malet Street or Russell Square.

Nearest underground: Euston, Goodge Street, Holborn, King's Cross, Russell Square